

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God. (Romans 12:1-2 NKJV)

1. Fa - ther God, just for to - day,
2. Here I am, just for to - day,

The first system of music features a treble and bass staff in E major (three sharps) and common time. The melody is primarily in the treble staff, with the bass staff providing a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the notes.

Help me walk Your nar - row way.
Live in me, and have Your way.

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. It includes a double bar line and a repeat sign at the end of the system.

Help me stand when I could fall,
My de - sire, when the race is run,

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. It includes a double bar line and a repeat sign at the end of the system.

Lend me strength to hear Your call.
Is to hear You say, "Well done!"

The fourth system concludes the piece with a final double bar line. The melody and accompaniment end on a whole note chord.

Refrain:

The musical score is written for piano and voice in G major (three sharps) and common time (C). It consists of four systems of music. The first system contains the first two lines of the refrain. The second system contains the next two lines, with a double bar line and repeat sign after the second line. The third system contains the first two lines of the refrain again. The fourth system contains the next two lines, also with a double bar line and repeat sign after the second line. The lyrics are: 'May my steps be wor - ship, May my thoughts be praise, May my words bring ho - nor to Your name.' The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a focus on the lyrics. The piano accompaniment is in the left hand, providing a steady harmonic foundation.

May my steps be wor - ship, May my thoughts be praise,
May my words bring ho - nor to Your name.
May my steps be wor - ship, May my thoughts be praise,
May my words bring ho - nor to Your name.
